Statement of the liquidators

Unofficial English translation of the French original

4th Release: in relation to the statement of claims

Personalized letters to the creditors, explaining the procedure for filing the statements of claims, shall be sent within the next 15 days.

The liquidators specify that, in accordance with the legal requirements, such letters will be sent individually to each known creditor via ordinary mail to the address stated in the records available to the liquidators.

Anyone not receiving such letter and who should be considered as creditor shall give notice to the liquidators by October 15, 2012 at the latest.
